Transforming Your Business Processes into Strategic Advantage

hanu

How can you sharpen your edge in an increasingly competitive market? How can you improve profitability by delivering higher-quality capabilities in a more cost-effective manner? Above all, how can you ensure that your business is positioned to succeed today and tomorrow?

For Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) companies, the challenges—and opportunities—have never been greater. Technology has revolutionized the industry, creating new channels for identifying, screening, and hiring candidates. Yet, many important recruiting processes still require manual intervention that can consume valuable resources.

Forward-thinking companies are forming outsourcing partnerships to more effectively manage a wide range of routine processes—from manual job posting to initial candidate screening. An outsourcing relationship provides improved cost-efficiency and greater flexibility, enabling you to more effectively manage peaks and valleys in clients' hiring demand.

Global Sourcing for Success

Today, the most successful RPO firms are choosing Hanu—a global provider of high-quality, high-value business process outsourcing and software development services. With an unparalleled commitment to total quality management, customer service, and continuous improvement, Hanu gives you a distinctive edge in quality, time to market, and responsiveness to your clients' needs.

Hanu not only assumes responsibility for your processes; we optimize them—squeezing out inefficiency and cost wherever possible. Because of our expertise in software development and maintenance, we are also able to develop or enhance proprietary recruiting tools to drive your efficiency, profitability, and competitive advantage.

The bottom line: Hanu's services give you the capacity to focus on your core capabilities—and the confidence to grow your business aggressively and successfully.

How can we help you?

We listen carefully to each client's needs and develop a right-fit solution for your specific requirements. The following is a sampling of our capabilities:

- » Manual posting and quality assurance for 1,200+ domestic and international job boards
- » Resume sourcing through job boards, social networking sites, and applicant tracking databases
- » Initial applicant screening
- » State board job posting to address OFCCP compliance
- » Automated jobs posting solution to improve speed and quality of posting
- » Software development and maintenance for the Microsoft .NET platform
